TASCANTE 'GHIAIA NERA' ETNA ROSSO

ETNA • SICILY • ITALY • EUROPE

TECHNICAL DETAILS

The Estate

Founded in 1830, Tasca d'Almerita operates five estates in five territories, including Tascante on Mount Etna. Tasca d'Almerita is currently run by Count Lucio Tasca, along with his sons, Giuseppe, Vice President, and Alberto, CEO.

Wine Making

All are certified as sustainable under SOSustain, a Sicilian-based program that rates wineries and vineyards based on their impact on the environment, in conjunction with the Italian Ministry of the Environment's VIVA indicators of sustainability.

Food Suggestions

Pairs well with beef, pasta, and lamb.

TASTING NOTES

Aromas of baked black cherry, charred rosemary and dried rose. Medium-bodied with fine, silky tannins. Smoky and pleasantly savory on the palate. I like the lingering finish here.

Nerello Mascalese grape blend.

This wine contains allergens, sulfites.
