IL PALAZZINO 'ARGENINA' CHIANTI CLASSICO- GRAN SELEZIONE

CHIANTI CLASSICO- GRAN SELEZIONE • TUSCANY • ITALY •
EUROPE

TECHNICAL DETAILS

The Estate

Il Palazzino is, inexplicably, one of the most under the radar estates in all of Chianti Classico. Alessandro and Andrea Sderci craft, rich, large-scaled Chianti Classicos that capture all of the natural intensity of Monti in Chianti, where the estate is located. Readers who have not tasted these wines owe it to themselves to do so.

Wine Making

Previously bottled as an annata, Palazzino's Argenina has now been elevated to Gran Selezione, meaning the estate's entire Chianti Classico production now falls into this category. It comes from a vineyard in the southern reaches of Gaiole on limestone-rich, fluvial terraces.

Food Suggestions

Pairs well with pasta, hard cheese, and grilled pork.

TASTING NOTES

Previously bottled as an annata, Palazzino's Argenina has now been elevated to Gran Selezione, meaning the estate's entire Chianti Classico production now falls into this category. It comes from a vineyard in the southern reaches of Gaiole on limestone-rich, fluvial terraces. An autumnal whiff of chestnut is followed by fetching heather and cinnamon stick. Elegant and fine framed, it presents as midweight and linear at first, then fleshes out across the palate. Tangy acidity persists throughout, and there's a subtle yet confident grip of tannins on the finish.

Sangiovese grape blend.

This wine contains allergens, sulfites.
