CANTINE POVERO

CANTINE POVERO TERRE DEI LARAMÈ LANGHE FAVORITA

PIEDMONT • ITALY • EUROPE

TECHNICAL DETAILS

The Estate

A descendant of Vermentino, Favorita was brought to Roero by Ligurian merchants in the 1700s. This rare varietal produces white grapes, used in the past only as a table grape. However, after long and careful experimentation, the Favorita is now able to give us complex and intense white wines.

Wine Making

To obtain a satisfactory and harmonious wine, a meticulous selection of raw materials and particular care in winemaking are required.

Food Suggestions

Pairs well with Risotto with vegetables and meat, sushi, fresh goat cheeses, egg salad, vitello tonnato.

TASTING NOTES

This wine is a pale straw yellow color with greenish reflections. Delicate aromas of melon, green hazelnut, medlar, aromatic herbs, citrus fruits, white flowers, and exotic fruit stand out. The palate is dry, fresh, and sapid, with a long finish.

Favorita grape blend.
This wine contains allergens, sulfites.
