KALEU MENDOZA MERLOT

MENDOZA • ARGENTINA • SOUTH AMERICA

TECHNICAL DETAILS

The Estate

Mapuche Indians were the original inhabitants of Mendoza. In their language 'kaleu' is a guardian bird representing the reincarnated soul of their ancestors. Kaleu wines are produced by Bodega Los Haroldos, owned by 'Familia Falasco' who have over 70 years' experience producing fine wines.

Wine Making

This 100% Merlot is from the UCO valley in Mendoza. The annual temperature here is between 14° & 15°C and the locations of the vineyards vary from 900 to 1500 meters above sea level. The Soils here are shallow, alluvial with gravel and boulders along with steep slopes.

Food Suggestions

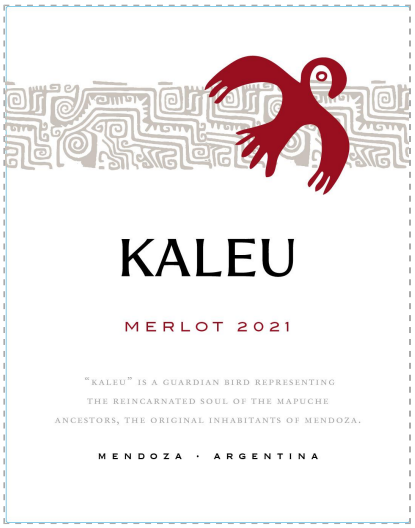

Pairs well with beef, lamb, and poultry dishes.

TASTING NOTES

This Merlot has a deep red and bright violet color. It recalls spices with a subtle hint of pepper and black forest berries of blueberry, cassis and raspberry. Its offers soft tannins and good acidity.

Merlot grape blend.
