ADEGAS GALEGAS 'D PEDRO DE SOUTOMAIOR' RÍAS BAIXAS ALBARIÑO

RIAS BAIXAS • GALICIA • SPAIN • EUROPE

TECHNICAL DETAILS

The Estate

Located in the Northwest corner of Spain, in the famous Rias Baixas zone of Galicia, Adegas Galegas was founded in 1995 with a desire to accentuate the unique characteristics of the O Rosado and O Condado sub-zones of the region. The winery is located in Salvaterra do Mino, which sits on the border with Portugal, in the southernmost area of Rías Baixas.

Wine Making

Asunción Carballo was brought in as the head winemaker and now leads a team dedicated to producing wines of true regional character coupled with modern and cutting edge winemaking. Asunción Carballo has the distinction of being the highest ranked Spanish white winemaker by Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, and represents a new wave of talented, young female winemakers in Spain.

Food Suggestions

Pairs well with pasta, shellfish, vegetarian dishes, appetizers and snacks, and lean fish.

TASTING NOTES

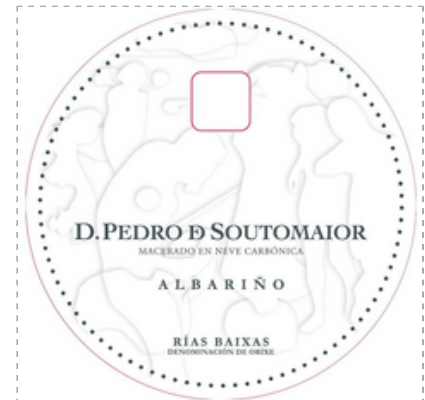

The wine is a bright and vivid straw-yellow green color with a touch of ripe lemon. An intense nose with elegant aromas and hints of fresh aromatic herbs and white flowers emerges, as well as nuances of white stone fruits, green apples, citrus and pear. The palate is persistent, well rounded and nicely balanced, with a light petillance that adds to its vivacious sense of freshness, and long finish.

Albariño grape blend.

This wine contains allergens, sulfites.
